K–12 Professional Learning Resources

If you are an Ontario educator, you can order additional copies – free of charge – for your school or board by following these simple steps:

1. Go To: <https://www.publications.serviceontario.ca>.
2. Log-in using the user name and password assigned to you by ServiceOntario – if you don't have a username and password, please have your principal or vice-principal or board contact email webpubont-EDU@ontario.ca.
Your username will look like this: EDU1234-01. Passwords will vary.
3. Many of our resources are published in series – search under the series name (e.g., Capacity Building Series, What Works? Research into Practice) or by using up to three key words from the publication's title.

To learn more about the professional learning resources published by the Student Achievement Division, email us at studentachievement@ontario.ca

Some of our resources are available online only.
