

<https://soundcloud.com/learnteachlead/nicola-clip>

Moving forward, two things I intend to do, one: to continue communicating that positive and growth mindset messages to my students so that they too will all and gradually develop the growth mindset. In terms of my colleagues, I will be sharing my story individually and also in group settings through PD sessions because I also want them to be able to evaluate their current approaches and see where and how they can make changes towards a growth mindset.